Valor wins Industrial Fund of the Year at REFI European Awards 2020

Valor Real Estate Partners LLP (“Valor”) is pleased to announce that it has won the “Industrial Fund of the Year” for Valor Industrial Partners I fund at the REFI European Awards 2020 (formerly PIE European Property Awards).

The Award is testament to the impact Valor has made in the European logistics real estate markets since launching in Q3 2016, as well as the strong performance that Valor generates for its investors through its granular value-add strategy targeting urban, infill industrial assets in and around the major gateway cities in Europe.

Christian Jamison, Valor’s Managing Partner, said: “This is a wonderful recognition of the team’s hard work in establishing Valor as an integrated investment, development and asset management platform. It is a great honour to receive this award.”

About Valor Real Estate Partners

Valor Real Estate Partners LLP invests in logistics and industrial real estate across Europe.

Christian Jamison formed Valor Real Estate partners LLP (“Valor”) with KSH Capital LP (“KSH”) in 2016 to invest in logistics and industrial real estate across Europe.

KSH’s partners are Jeffrey Kelter and Robert Savage, the founders of KTR Capital, an investment, development and operating business focused on industrial property in North America that was acquired by Prologis in 2015 for a total purchase price of $5.9BN.

Prior to Valor, Christian established Delin Capital Asset Management (“DCAM”) and served as the company’s CEO until his departure from the business in February 2016. During his tenure as CEO, Jamison established DCAM within the European logistics real estate sector, built a team and created Capital Preservation Portfolio 1, a €500mm fund of prime European logistics properties totaling 6 million square feet.
